WASHINGTON, Thursday, May 18, 1867 The impeachment investigation has been dropped for a few days by the Judiciary Committee. This is have been summened. They are expected here by the latter part of the week, when the investigation will be relately is Gen. Burton, the officer who had charge of Jeff. Davis at the time of his delivery to Judge Underwood's onts, and the orders he received from the President on the subject. The Committee to-day took up the hase of the dispute between the corporations of the Kansas branch of the Union Pacific Railroad. There are two companies claiming ownership to the road, and at the last session of Congress it was referred to the Judiciary Committee to determine which were the legal owners. Several witnesses were examined on the subject, and more

Gen. Burton has been summoned to appear before the Judiciary Committee to give testimony as to custody, conversations, etc., with Jeff. Davis.

Witnesses were to-day summoned to appear before the Judiciacy Committee with reference to the pardon of Kohustamm. The letter of Gov. Fenion recommending the pardon is yet to be proven, and all circumstances official and unofficial, are to be given in evidence as far as can be disclosed, as also the fact that the Government representative, Gov. Peirpont, withdrew his opposition to the pardon on the payment of the amount claimed by Judge Evans, named as successor to Mr. Wright, late Minister to Prussia, was a member of Congress from Texas at the breaking out of the Rebellion. He continned a steadfast friend of the Union and a supporter of the Federal Government throughout the war, and is held in high esteem by United States Senators, to whom he is well known. Judge Evans would doubtless be confirmed should the President nominate him. Loyal Southern men claim that the South should have this mission, as all the diplomatic corps is now of the North.

The Hon. W. E. Chandler, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has determined to resign his position on the first of next mouth.

Postmaster-General Randall leaves here on Sanday next to visit friends in New-York, and will be absent

The Supreme Court adjourned sine die to-day, and nearly all the Judges have already left for their homes. There are several members of Congress in the city, having business with the Departments.

The opinion of Attorney-General Stansberry on the Reonstruction acts will, it is expected, be ready for promulgation this week. All the points have been decided on and approved by the President and his Cabinet. The utmost pains have been taken to render clear and beyond cloubt the meaning of the various branches of the acts. The preparation of the document has involved an exami-nation of the laws of the Southern States, in order to understand precisely what classes of persons are affected by the Congressional action, and to afford a guide by which this may be carried into execution with the least possible degree of embarrassment to all parties concerned.

Elliot C. Cowdin of New-York has been appointed a ssioner of the United States for the Paris Universal Exposition. He is expected to report on the in the fourth group. Mr. Cowdin was appointed by a manimous vote of the Commission after they met in Paris, in accordance with the act of March, which provides for the designation of not more than 20 additional Honorary Commissioners, by those originally appointed. who shall serve without compensation.

Suspicion of these robberies lately rested upon a colored confidential messenger in the office of the Controller of the Currency, named James H. S. Schurman, and he was to-day arrested on the charge of forgery and larceny of $12,000, in $50 and $100 notes of the First National Bank of Jersey City and others. beside an expensive lot of stationery, which had vidently been purloined from the Department. An examination before a police magistrate took place to day, District-Attorney Carrington appearing for the proson. The Hop. H. R. Hulburd, Controller of Carrency, having been sworn testified, there had recently been lost $12,000 in fifty and one hundred dollar notes on the First National Bank, New-Jersey. The notes were genuine impressions, but the signatures were forged. The result of the examination was the bailing of the prisoner in the sum of ten thousand dollars to appear at the Court. Schurman's position as confidential messenger gave him access to the vaults. He had occupied the position as messenger in the office of the Controller of the Currency for several years. The loss of notes belonging To the New-Jersey Bank was first discovered on the 3d sustant, although for a long time past other losses comparatively light have been a source of anxiety. The ouse of the accused was searched, and several articles

THE MISSISSIPPI INJUNCTION DENIED.

WASHINGTON, May 16 .- The Supreme Court of the United States met to day, contrary to the aunouncement vesterday; and after delivering various opinions, adjourned until the first Monday in December next. The Court ordered as follows:

That certain rules and forms of proceedings in bankrupter, which have been framed and adopted by the Court in pursuance of the act of Congress, approved
March 2.1867, be, and the same are hereby promulgated.
That the said rules and forms be recorded by the Clerk,
and that they be allowed to be printed.

Case No. 14. (Original.) The State of Mississippi, complainant, agt. Secretary Stanton, and Gens. Grant, and Ord was decided by the Court. The motion was for Acave to file an amendment to the bill in this case. This was desied by a divided Court, as announced by Chief-Justice Chase; but the names of the Judges on each side

I pon the motion to dismiss the bill for want of jurisdiction, it was ordered that the bill be dismissed, with costs. so the Mississippi Injunction case falls, with that of Georgia. The amended bill was as follows:

The State of Mississippi agt. Stanton, Grant, Ord, et al. The State of Mississippi agt. Stanton, Grant, Ord, et al. The State of Mississippi agt. Stanton, Grant, Ord, et al. The State of Mississippi, by amendment to the bill now brilled, sets forth and declares that under various grants of hand from the Congress of the United States, and otherwise, and especially under the ordinances of 1767, before referred to, the compact of 1892 (to which reference has heretofore been made), the Constitution of the state of 1817, and subsequent legislation of Congress, she holds, as a State, large and valuable bodies of land within the limits of State and Valuable bodies of land within the limits of State at the exceeding in value several millions of dilars. That upon a portion of these lands state, exceeding in value several millions of dilars. That upon a portion of these lands and contracts to five per cent of the net proceeds of the sales of public lands of the United States within the State, which lands are of great value, and which net proceeds will amount to very considerable sums. That these lands and these net proceeds will all be lost to the State at ourse if the laws complained of should be upheld and maintained. And the said State of Mississippi further avera that, as she is informed and believes, the court, seize and take possession of all the moneys in the State Treasury of Arkansas, has already seized and taken the court, seize and take possession of all the moneys in the State of Mississippi, which moneys are a very large amount, and thereby prevent the payment of the State of Mississippi, which moneys are a very large amount, and thereby prevent the payment of the State of Mississippi, which moneys are a very large amount, and thereby prevent the payment of the State of Mississippi, which moneys are a very large amount, and thereby prevent the payment of the State of Mississippi, which moneys are a very large compensation or salary to all the officers, logislative, executive, or ruddelal, of the State of Mis

avers that the said Ord threatens to carry all these last above-mentioned measures into effect, which measures the complainant firmly believes the said Ord will execute, unless immediately restrained by this Court. And this complaint further avers, as it is informed and believes, that the said Ord threatens to pre-Court. And this complaint further avers, as it is informed and believes, that the said Ord threatens to prevent the assemblage of any Legislature within the limits of the State of Mississippi, and to prevent the election of any officers. Legislative, Executive, or Judicial, under the laws within the limits of the State, to vacancies or otherwise, and thereby reduce the said State to anarchy, or substitute in Hen thereof a military despotism. And this complainant further avers, as it is informed and believes, that the said Ord threatens to prevent the collection of any State taxes in said State by the State officers, which taxes legitimately belong to said State, whereby the said Ord will destroy the Government thereof and prevent the execution of the State laws. And the complainant further believes that the said Ord will carry all of said menaces into effect immediately, unless restrained by the process of this Court, And complainant is informed and believes, and so avers, that said Ord will, unless arrested immediately by this Court, seize and possess himself of the moneys of the State now in its treasury, and also proceed to collect said State faxes, and use the same for purposes which are contrary to the rights and laws of the State of Mississippi. And this complainant further avers that all the facts stated in this amendment have come to the knowlede of the complainant, so far as Gen. E. O. C. ord is concerned, since the argument of the motion in this case on Friday last, wherefor, and inasmuch as no answer has as yet been filed in this case, complainant requests the Court that this amendment may be accepted as a part of the bill.

NEW-YORK AND NEW-HAVEN RAILROAD. President, recently appointed to inquire into the best, thost desirable, and most economical material for head SESSION—THE NEW BOARD.

ing at the Merchants' Exchange at 11 s. m.. The Hou. Alfred Biackman of New-Haven presided, and George II. Wattous, esq., of New-Haven officiated as Secretary in the absence of the Secretary, Mr. Abernethy. The meeting was one of the largest and livelies in the history of the road; 12,000 of the 60,000 shares of the road were represented. The cause of this was a division of sentiment on the question of continuing the old Board, which had been in office for about 13 years past. The Board, as it stood last year, was composed of the following continuen: George B. Carhart, George V. Miller, Abraham R. Van Nest, James J. Roosevelt, Wilson G. Hunt, Win. W. Boardman, Ezekiel H. Trowbridge, Jonathan Godfrey. The proposed new ticket was termed the "Reform Ticket," and represented the inforests of those who wished a change in the management of the road, and to have it run in the interest of the people who reside along the line of the road. This ticket was as follows:

cia Skidde, New-York; Wm. P. Jones, Stamford; LeGrand Lock Francia Skidde, A. N. Ramadell, New London; Lambord; LeGrand Lockwood, Norwalk, A. N. Ramadell, New London; Lame D. Skuth, Standink, Wan Bement, New York; Joseph Richardson, Bridgeport; R. M. Blatchfoni, New York; Erra C. Read, New Haven.

As the meeting was about to proceed to ballot, Mr. Simeon B. Chittenden of New-York roso and stated that the New York and New-Haven Railroad had been badly managed. This was a notorious fact. He did not wish to have the road run hereafter as it had been. To this end, he offered the following resolutious:

Whereas, Many of the stockholders here present are suprepared to rode intelligently folder.

Rasolved, That Thomas B. Trowbridge, Joseph Battell, A. R. Eno, Wm. M. Vermille, P. B. Loomis, Samed Wiletts, Jermink A. Bishop, P. G. Landon, and George Buckley be a Committee to commisse a Board of Directors for the ensing year, and that said Committee be assemted to report four weeks from to-day.

Resolved, That then this meeting adjourns, that it does so to meet in to report four weeks from to-day.

Resolved: That when this meeting adjourns, that it does so to meet in this place on Thursday, the lath of June.

Mr. Horace F. Clark of New-York liked the spirit of Mr. Chittenden's resolution, but wished to have the meeting decide first whether it would appoint a committee to monimate, and then adjourn four weeks, and if so decided, to appoint a committee of nomination of its own selection. Mr. Chittenden agreed with Mr. Chark, and the resolution was amended accordingly. It was decided that the yote must be byn slock vote. Messrs. Henry White, E. J. Sanford, and George H. Scranton, all of New-Haven, were appointed inspectors of votes. The meeting then, after some minor discussions, adjourned to 2 o'clock, to await action upon the proxies. At 2 the meeting came together again. A new ticket was circulated, with S. B. Chittenden's name at its head. The ticket was as follows:

S. B. Chittenden, New-York; Amss. K. Bo, New-York; William Bemen, New-York, Teneis Skidly, New-York; Lefrand Lockwood, Norealt; John A. Park, Rye: George Balbley, Seathport; N. A. Baldwin, Milont; Thou E. Trostoridge, New-Hork; Lefrand Lockwood, and Milont; Thou E. Trostoridge, New-Hork; Left his resolution, or before. He withdrew his name from the field as a candidate, and also, by authority, the names of Mr. Eno and Mr. Trowbridge.

It was not until about 5 o'clock, p. m. that the proxies didate, and also, by authority, the names of Mr. Eno and Mr. Trowbridge.

It was not until about 5 o'clock, p. m. that the proxies were declared examined. Interesting speeches followed. Mr. Clark of New-York wished an explanation from the friends of the so-called reform ticket, of their reasons for the opposition to the old Board. He further denounced Mr. Bement, the Treasurer of the road for 15 years past, alleging that he had been intrusted with proxies to a large extent in behalf of the old Board, and that he was about to fraudulently use them in behalf of the new, or opposition Board, contrary to the wishes of those whom the proxies represented. He had been guilty of treason to the road.

Mr. Chittenden followed. He did not seek to exonerate Mr. Bement, saying, however, that if he had cred he must have done so unintentionally, and then urged that this matter was another reason why his resolution should pass.

Senator O. S. Ferry replied to the charges brought against Mr. Bement. Mr. B. had not been instructed to vote this way or that way; he had been instructed to vote this way or that way; he had been instructed to vote this way or that way; he had been instructed to vote this way or that way; he had been instructed with the proxies by those whom they represented to use as he saw fit, the proxy owners having confidence in Mr. Bement's indement, and giving him power to exercise it in using the proxies. As to the management of the road it had been execrable, he said. It had been robbed of half a million dollars. It was a stench in the nostries of the public. Its under-officials were impertinent and negligent of the comfort of passengers, and the road was generally unaccommodating. If reform was not had, the proposed new parallel road would surely he constructed.

Mr. H. M. Benedict of Greenwich, made a plea in behalf of the reform ticket. At 64 o'clock p. m. the vote on Mr. Chittenden's resolution as amended, was declared as follows: In favor, 5,789; against, 36,449.

On motion of Mr. Vermilye of New-York, the meeting then proceeded to ballot for directors. While this was in progress, the Hon. Henry B. Harrison addressed the meeting on behalf of the old Board. The Board, he said, was in no wise responsible for the Schuyler fraud; Mr. Clark had made a just request when he asked that the friends of the opposition ticket give the reasons for opposition. The Board is years ago had been required—it was not their will—they were required to act as they did in reference to the over issue of bonds by Robert Schuyler, by express vote of the stockholders. The Board had been charged with mismanagement. Would the opposition, and finally withdrew from his work.

The old Board was reflected by a vote of 28,000 shares, for the Reform ticket, 18,000 shares were cast.

THE SHIP DASHING WAVE.—The cargo of wheat and copper ore of this ship, sunk near the S. W. Spit, is being brought to this care by the contractor. Mr. L. is being brought to this care by the contractor. Mr. L. is being brought to the Company of the Stoam Devilek Co. The strain is not injured, And will be brought to the city in good contractor.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The presence of Jefferson Davis caused no apparent excitement yesterday about the New-York Hotel, where he remained strictly refired. The announcement that he was at that hotel caused a few curious persons to stop there upon their way down town, in the hope of sering the ex-Rebel chief, but until 12 o'clock he saw no one except a few personal friends. The hotel register bore the manice of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, child and nurse, Mrs. Howell, Joseph R. Davis, and Dr. Craven. There was an almost impenetrable reticence upon the part of the officials of the hotel respecting any present or future movements of the party, and but few persons who sent up their cards were admitted into Mr. Davis's presence. Judge Russel, Benjamin Wood, Mr. Varian of State-rights eminence, and a number of others were among the callers who had interviews with Mr. Davis.

It had been reported that Mr. Davis would proceed, during the afternoon, to the residence of Judge O'Conor, but the reporters were informed that the plans of the party were not yet matured. No certain knowledge of Mr. Davis's intentions was obtained, though it was reported that the party would remain in the city until Monday next before proceeding toward Montreal. There was no excitement nor crowd about the hotel during the day, those who did stop there from curiosity soon tiring of standing about with no more noticeable article in sight than the ordinary walls and decorations of the hotel. As to the contradictory rumors about the Davis party, we are credibly informed that the application for rooms at the New-York Hotel to accommodate the Southern travelers was a surprise to the proprietor; and the reports which found place in some of the papers that pre-cautions of an unusual character were taken to insure the safe entrance of Mr. Davis, are not founded in fact. The lights were down and the door was locked, because it is a rule of the house that all must be secure and quiet at midnight. The officers of the hotel have treated the curious inquirers with much courtesy, though compelled by the earnest wish of the Rebel chief to give the pegative to almost every applicant.

The party design to visit Canada; but they will probably be in New-York during the remainder of the present week, and it is not likely that the comfortable quarters now occupied will be exchanged for any others.

Mr. Davis remained in the hotel all day.

CRIME.

THE TENTH-AVE. MURDER-CORONER'S INQUEST An inquest was yesterday held by Coroner Schir mer, at the Mount Sinai Hospital, in Twenty-eighth-st. near Seventh-ave., on the body of Mrs. Annie McCaffrey, who died in that institution from the effect of a pistor shot wound in the neck inffleted by her husband, James on Tuesday night. The full particulars have been pub on Tuesday night. The full particulars have been published in The Tribune. Several witnesses were examined, but the only additional facts elicited were those given by Officer Perkins of the Sixteenth Preclinet, who testified that on entering the room occupied by the McCaffreys, and finding the woman lying upon the floor, bleeding from a wound in the neck, he asked who had shot her, and she replied. "My husband, who is now lying upon the bed; he has threatened me on several occasions when under the influence of liquor, and is in the habit of sleeping with a pistol under his pillow; he fired the pistol but once, and then caught me by the neck and choked me." The pistol when found contained ne charges. Several witnesses testified that the decrased and prisoner were very intemperate, and quarreled incessantly. The jury rendered a verdict against McCaffrey, and he was committed to the Tombs by the Coroner to await the action of the Grand Jury. He is a native of Ireland, aged 23 years, and a laboror. He denies his guith.

A public meeting of No. 22 Council Union League of America, in favor of equal suffrage ir, this State, was held at their hall, No. 2 Fourth-ave, last night. Resolutions were passed assorting that as even government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed, it is not competent for either laws or existitutions to deprive any adult eithen of the right to a voice in the selection of legislatures; that while Congress is bound to gnarantee to each state a republical form of government, it devoires upon the people to foster, by appropriate legislation, the spirit of true depocratic institutions as the true basis of such a government; that under a free government the right to vote being the conservator of all other rights, civil and political, it is of paramount importance that every adults make member of society should be guaranteed the exercise of that right; that all make citizens of the State of New York, 21 years of age, irrespective of color, are entitled to the elective franchise; and that the second active of the first section of the present constitution of this State, making distinction between citizens of the first section of the present constitution of this State, making distinction between citizens of the first section of the present constitution of this State, making distinction between citizens of America, in favor of equal suffrage ir. this State, was resting as it does on color, is violative of the cardinal doctrine of popular government—"equal and exact justice to all men"—inimical to the spirit of republican institutions, and ought to be abolished. Judge Cuiver made an address which he said would be one of encouragement and from his words of cheer in the advanced stage of public sentiment relative to the political rights of the negro, and arged them to temperate but decided measures to secure and deserve them. He showed by the history of our last few years of national life that a straightforward, determined course was preferable and most effectual. The negro is living down his standers: he has carned the right to vote, and they might depend upon it that justice will be done. Other States had done this justice to their race, and New-York would not be behindhand in the work, and deprive 48,000 voters in this State of their rightful privilege. Mr. George T. Downing, colored, said that the July riots of 1983, and other dispiriting events had discouraged political substitutes and the colored men of New-York, and they have since given their attention more to the accumulation of property, instead. But he hoped they would cultivate political aspirations, for it was a matter of interest—of dollars and cents, rather than of sentiment. In possession of the frunchise, the colored man could command positions in bonded warehouses and other places of profit now monopolized by white men. He took a hope ful view of the situation, as the Democracy would not oppose them from motives of policy, while Republicans could not, if they would, consistently. The Rev. Chas. T. Ray said that it should be the aim of the colored men to see that the question of negro franchise should not be a separate clause to be resting as it does on color, is violative of the cardinal sistently. The Rev. Chas. T. Ray said that it should be the aim of the colored men to see that the question of negro franchise should not be a separate clause to be voted on in the new Constitution, because such a division of the question would be fatal to the object, and instanced the experience of this State in 1847, to prove the statement, when a Whig Governor was elected by 15,000 majority, while negro suffrage found 150,000 votes cast against it. Major Haggerty spoke of the necessity of self-dependence as a means of success. When black mea called upon white men to speak to them, and lead them, while splendid talent sat uninvited in their midst, they never could succeed. They must show that they have brain and muscle, and they will be respected. Abrain H. Galloway, colored, of North Carolina, John Jay, also colored, and others followed in a similar strain.
